Asymptotically hyperbolic Einstein manifolds and Dehn filling

Gordon Craig
Department of Mathematics & Statistics
Burnside Hall
McGill University
805 Sherbrooke W.
Montréal, Québec H3A 2K6, Canada

Abstract

I will present a gluing construction which allows one to obtain infinitely many asymptotically hyperbolic Einstein manifolds by filling in the cusps of certain infinite-volume hyperbolic manifolds. This is a generalisation of Anderson's Dehn filling contruction of compact negatively curved Einstein manifolds.