

Holographic QCD at finite (imaginary) chemical potential

Aldo Cotrone*

cotrone@fi.infn.it

Holographic QCD (the Witten–Sakai–Sugimoto model) is studied at finite (imaginary) chemical potential. The model includes dynamical quarks. Various observables are derived and the phase diagram, which qualitatively agrees with lattice QCD results, is discussed.

*Dipartimento di Fisica, Università di Firenze, Via Sansone 1, Sesto Fiorentino, Florence 50019, ITALY.