

A Step Towards Twist Conjecture

Piotr Przytycki*

piotr.przytycki@mcgill.ca

Muehlherr’s Twist Conjecture predicts that any angle-compatible isomorphism between Coxeter groups is a composition of elementary twists. We prove the conjecture under assumptions that the diagram of W admits only singleton twists and has property FC.

This is joint work with Jingyin Huang.

*Department of Mathematics & Statistics, McGill University, 805 Sherbrooke Street West, Montréal, QC H3A 0B9, CANADA