

Symplectic cohomology of subdomains

Saraswathi Venkatesh *

svenkatesh@math.ias.edu

Mirror symmetry predicts the existence of Floer invariants that yield “local” information. Guided by this, we construct a symplectic cohomology theory that detects Floer-essential Lagrangians within subdomains. We illustrate the quantitative behavior of this theory by examining negative line bundles over toric symplectic manifolds.

*Department of Mathematics, Institute for Advanced Study, 1 Einstein Drive, Princeton, NJ 08540, USA