Local unitaries in quantum field theory

Nima Lashkari *

lashkari@ias.edu

Connes and Stormer have proved that in quantum field theory any two states can come arbitrarily close by acting with local unitaries. Since local unitaries do not change the entanglement structure of the states, this result has dramatic consequences for the entanglement theory of field theory states. I give a simple physical explanation of this surprising result and construct the unitary that brings two states nearby.

*School of Natural Sciences, Institute for Advanced Study, 1 Einstein Drive, Princeton, NJ 08540, USA