Differential-difference equations and deformations of $W$-algebras

Daniele Valeri

Daniele.Valeri@glasgow.ac.uk

In this talk I will show that multiplicative lambda-brackets provide a convenient framework to study differential-difference equations. The main application is to the theory of $q$-deformations of $W$-algebras.

*School of Mathematics and Statistics, University of Glasgow, University Place, Glasgow, G12 8QQ, UNITED KINGDOM