Fermat quartic K3 via finite group symmetries

Keiji Oguiso

Mathematical Sciences University of Tokyo
Meguro-ku Komaba 3-8-1
Tokyo 153-8914
JAPAN

Abstract

I would like to characterize the Fermat quartic K3 surface via its finite group symmetries. In the course of proof, I would like to explain some pretty relations between geometry of K3 surfaces and algebraic tools, namely, projective v.s. linear representation of finite groups, Mathieu groups and coding theory, arithmetic of cyclotomic integers and so on.