

« PREMIÈRE RENCONTRE MATHÉMATIQUE BAVIÈRE–QUÉBEC »
30 NOVEMBRE–3 DÉCEMBRE, 2009

“FIRST BAVARIA–QUÉBEC MATHEMATICAL MEETING”
NOVEMBER 30–DECEMBER 3, 2009

Pretentiousness and the distribution of primes

ANDREW GRANVILLE

Département de mathématiques et de statistique
Université de Montréal
C.P. 6128, succ. Centre-ville
Montréal, QC H3C 3J7
Canada

`andrew@dms.umontreal.ca`

We understand the distribution of primes in a new way, using the concept of “pretentiousness” developed by Soundararajan and the speaker. We will indicate a new proof of the prime number theorem, and perhaps also of Gallagher’s theorem and of Linnik’s theorem.