A Celebration of Raoul Botts Legacy in Mathematics
Symposium soulignant l'héritage mathématique de Raoul Bott
June 9–13, 2008/9 au 13 juin 2008

Multiplier ideals

Joseph Kohn
Department of Mathematics
Princeton University
Fine Hall, Room 304
Princeton, NJ 08544-1000
USA

kohn@princeton.edu

Abstract

Multiplier ideals are used to translate estimates in PDE to problems in algebraic geometry. I will mainly discuss the ideals that arise from estimates of operators on pseudoconvex domains and their application to the study of singularities of complex analytic vaieties and of quadratic forms.