

Discrete symmetries of discrete equations

Decio Levi

Dipartimento di Fisica "E. Amaldi"

Universita' di Roma Tre

Via della Vasca Navale 84

00146 Roma

ITALIA

Abstract

We discuss some techniques introduced to provide discrete point symmetries for differential equations and show how one can extend their application to the case of discrete equations. As an example we apply the technique to the construction of discrete point symmetries of linear and nonlinear equations on various lattices.