

Algebraic Combinatorics meets Inverse Systems

January 19-21, 2007

Toric varieties and Quivers

Gregory G. Smith

ggsmith@mast.queensu.ca

Department of Mathematics & Statistics

Queen's University

Kingston, Ontario K7L 3N6

CANADA

Abstract

In this talk, we'll examine how the combinatorics of quivers are connected with the geometry of toric varieties. In particular, we will realize every projective toric variety as a fine moduli space of representations for an appropriate bound quiver.

Joint work with Alastair Craw.