

Homogeneous Einstein metrics

Christoph Böhm

Math. Institut

University of Münster

Einsteinstrasse 62, Münster

Nordrheinwestfalen D-48149, Germany

Abstract

On compact homogeneous spaces G/H the critical points of the Hilbert action restricted to the space of homogeneous metrics are precisely the homogeneous Einstein metrics. Topological properties of high energy levels of this action can be detected by simplicial complexes which are defined by intermediate subgroups. Applying variational methods one obtains general existence results for homogeneous Einstein metrics.