

Asymptotically hyperbolic Einstein manifolds and Dehn filling

Gordon Craig

Department of Mathematics & Statistics

Burnside Hall

McGill University

805 Sherbrooke W.

Montréal, Québec H3A 2K6, Canada

Abstract

I will present a gluing construction which allows one to obtain infinitely many asymptotically hyperbolic Einstein manifolds by filling in the cusps of certain infinite-volume hyperbolic manifolds. This is a generalisation of Anderson's Dehn filling construction of compact negatively curved Einstein manifolds.