

Theory CANADA 4 Conference
Conférence Théorie CANADA 4
4-7 June/Juin, 2008

On the Singularity Issue in Loop Quantum Gravity

Andrew DeBENEDICTIS
Department of Physics
Simon Fraser University
8888 University Drive
Burnaby, British Columbia V5A 1S6
CANADA

adebened@sfu.ca

Abstract

It has long been believed that a viable theory of quantum gravity should eliminate the singularities predicted by the classical theory. In this talk the loop quantum gravity formalism will be reviewed, along with its predictions regarding the removal of singularities. Possible extensions and future works on this issue will also be outlined.