

Federico Rodrigues-Hertz, PennState University (USA)

Group actions, rigidity and beyond

In this series of lectures we shall introduce the main basic tools to handle smooth group actions displaying some hyperbolicity. We shall show how to use these tools to prove some rigidity results and discuss further lines of research. The class of group actions we shall discuss comes mostly in 2 flavors, actions of lattices in higher rank groups, and actions on low dimensional manifolds.